

Midwifery Insight Afternoon

Wednesday 22nd of August 2018
1pm-5pm
Ishbel Gordon Building,
Robert Gordon University

Considering your future career as a Midwife?

Come along to hear more about the role and essential skills of the Midwife, and learn about the women and families they care for through a series of interactive workshops. Speak with and discover the experiences of Midwives, current student Midwives, and women, and learn about the application process for RGU's degree in Midwifery.

Spaces are limited and registration is essential. Visit www3.rgu.ac.uk/events/midwifery-insight-afternoon to find out more and book your space. For more information contact Fiona Gibb, RGU Lead Midwife for Education on 01224 262654.
